

The Nicole and Kevin Shit Show

The USC Additional Meeting of Council:
Strategic Plan

Wednesday November 16th, 2011

Background Information

- A Vision to Lead is the USC's current, long term strategic vision, which was created by 2009
  - A strategic plan is the USC's process of defining its strategy and direction while making decision on allocation its resources for the upcoming three years.
- The University Students' Council must vote in the objectives set out by the strategic plan committee and the USC Executive.

The Strategic Plan

2012-2015

- Is a blank slate! There is a undergraduate wide survey to be distributed that will collect the opinions of students regarding the USC and overall student experience
- The collected data will be used to develop the Strategic Plan 2012-2015
- The Strategic Plan is promised to be released by the AGM in March 2012

Volunteering Opportunities

- The USC is looking for student volunteers to help the USC survey students and canvass neighbourhoods to gather information for the next strategic plan that the USC is currently developing.
- This is a perfect opportunity for student to get involved and learn what the USC has planned in the upcoming years
- Volunteers will be given a free lunch and be eligible for prize giveaways

Details

- Off-campus canvassing takes place on Saturday, November 26
- Breakfast starts at 10am
- Canvassing will take approximately 4 hours

Nicole during off-campus canvassing, having fun!!!!!!